WORKING TOGETHER

RICHARD LANIGAN
PRESIDENT

MARY MAHONEY
SECRETARY-TREASURER

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 2016

Richard Trumka:
We will WIN
together!

AFL-CIO President Richard Trumka pulled out all the stops on Wednesday morning with a powerful, and at times colorful, speech about the American labor movement landscape and what's at stake in this election, telling convention delegates, "This November, let's vote for an America that works for working people!" Trumka made it clear that the only way to do that is to "lead by example," encouraging delegates to phone bank, knock on doors and empower new activists to ensure Hillary Clinton and all pro-worker candidates win this fall. "This is organizing on a mammoth scale," Trumka said. He ended by saying, "We will stand together. We will fight together. We will win together!"

Disney fun facts ▼

Gone, but not forgotten! Walt Disney World's Lost and Found is one busy place. Every day, an average of 210 pairs of sunglasses are turned in and, since 1971, an estimated 1.65 million pairs of glasses have found their way into the "lost" bin. On an annual basis, Lost and Found collects more than 6,000 cell phones, 3,500 digital cameras, 18,000 hats and 7,500 autograph books.

A moving tribute to

Michael Goodwin

for his visionary leadership and lasting legacy at OPEIU

Delegates laughed, cried and stood together in applause to celebrate the contribution and legacy of International President Emeritus Michael Goodwin. President Richard Lanigan, Secretary-Treasurer Mary Mahoney, and in a video message, U.S. Senator Charles Schumer (D-N.Y.) and many, many others shared their personal gratitude for Goodwin's leadership of OPEIU and unwavering commitment to America's workers.
