2. The parties agree that the Employer can temporarily subcontract any work covered by this agreement when the Employer is unable to hire qualified staff, when there is a lack of experienced skilled staff who are willing to perform the work, when the Employer does not have the equipment or technology that can more efficiently perform the work, or when the Employer is preparing for hospital certification and/or inspection. The Employer agrees to notify the Union 48 hours in advance of subcontracting. The Employer agrees that it will subcontract only to companies that pay its employees at least the same hourly wage rate as would have been paid to bargaining unit employees performing the subcontracted work.
3. Labor-management meetings will be held at a mutually agreeable time and date on a quarterly basis, provided that one party has submitted an agenda to the other party at least 48 hours in advance of the date proposed. The Union may designate four employees (two from EVS and two from FANS) to represent the bargaining unit.

Meetings will be held to apprise the other of problems, concerns, and suggestions related to the operations and the work force, all with the aim of promoting better understanding between the parties. Such meetings shall not be constructed as opening the agreement for negotiations, nor shall any subject matter at the meetings constitute a step in the grievance procedure. Employees shall be paid at their regular hourly rate for the time spent at the labor-management committee meetings.

4. Courtesy. The Employer and the Union agree to encourage all employees and managers/supervisors, regardless of position or profession, to behave in a professional, courteous and respectful manner when such individuals interact with fellow employees, patients and the public.

1. To determine the processes or operations.
2. To assign work to such employees in accordance with the requirements determined by Management.
3. To establish and change work schedules and assignments.
4. To maintain order and efficiency.
5. To change operating practices and work assignments and to eliminate work as business requirements may dictate.

The Employer may establish and enforce reasonable rules, regulations and procedures applicable to employees, provided that such rules, regulations and procedures do not conflict with the provisions of this Agreement. Any dispute over the reasonableness of any rule will be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration Procedure set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXVII - SAVINGS CLAUSE AND COMPLETE AGREEMENT

1. In the event that any provision of this agreement is rendered invalid by applicable legislation, or be declared invalid by any court or regulatory agency of competent jurisdiction, such action will not invalidate the entire agreement, it being the intent of the parties hereto that all other provisions not rendered invalid will remain in full force and effect. The parties agree to attempt to cure such invalidity by negotiation and to submit the matter to arbitration if such negotiations are unsuccessful.

2. The parties acknowledge and agree that during negotiations that resulted in this Agreement, each had the full right and opportunity to make demands and proposals regarding any subject matter related to collective bargaining and that demands or proposals that were or could have been made were not achieved are considered disposed of without agreement.
